Additional Provisions

ARTICLE I.
This corporation shall be governed by the Articles of Incorporation and also by the Bylaws which are to be adopted by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II.
The purposes of the corporation are:
1. To establish a permanent entity to conduct educational, charitable and scientific activities related to or allied with the field of geology.
2. To make contributions to any organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
3. To conduct research, both directly and through the promotion, assistance, encouragement, support and furtherance of studies and research, in the field of geology and in sciences related thereto.
4. To disseminate information relating to geology and related fields through lectures, seminars, publications, educational courses, teaching aids and by other means and materials.
5. To carry on programs of continuing education in geology and related studies.
6. To assist in career guidance to persons interested in the field of geology or related fields.
7. To assist public or private schools (elementary and secondary), colleges and universities and technical schools in teaching and education in the field of geology and related fields.
8. To provide scholarships, prizes, awards, gifts, educational loans and other kinds of support to assist or reward persons engaged in the study of and/or pursuit of the science of geology or related fields.
9. To establish fellowships or “chairs” in colleges and universities in order to further education and knowledge in the field of geology and related fields.
10. To work with and support (including contributions from the corporation) other organizations with similar objectives which are in themselves tax-exempt educational or scientific organizations under the Internal Revenue Code.
11. To support activities of other organizations with financial assistance so long as the activity supported is one in which the corporation, as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, may engage and the financial assistance is so utilized.
12. To exercise any and all powers granted under the laws of the State of Colorado to nonprofit corporations.

ARTICLE III.
This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IV.
This corporation shall never have any capital stock, being organized solely for nonprofit purposes. This corporation shall not afford pecuniary gain to its members.
ARTICLE V.
No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VI.
The corporation shall have one voting member, which shall be the Four Corners Geological Society, a Colorado nonprofit corporation. The rights, powers, privileges, duties and other terms of membership shall be as from time to time stated in the Bylaws of the corporation.

ARTICLE VII.
The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in the Colorado Nonprofit Corporation Act, these Articles of Incorporation, or the Bylaws of the corporation. The number of directors, their classifications, if any, their terms of office and the manner of their election or appointment shall be determined according to the Bylaws of the corporation from time to time in force. Five directors shall constitute the initial Board of Directors. The names and addresses of the first Board of Directors and its Officers are as follows. These directors will serve until new directors are elected by the Four Corners Geological Society and take office.
